Message from the East

Brothers,

A historical moment occurred February 4th when seven BYKOTA Brothers made a visit to Boca-Delray Lodge #171 and retrieved the Traveling Gavel. As memory recalled, the Gavel hasn't adorned our Lodge Room since 1992, but after reading the Gavel Log it was revealed it hasn't been here since 2005. The Traveling Gavel was created to promote fellowship within District 32, and it's time our District Brothers know where the Gavel will be located for the rest of the year. Thanks to W:. Wayne Thibeault, W:. John McIntosh, Tres. Joe Harvey, SS David Zamola, JD Jason Shott and JS Mitchell Lamb for making the trip. Needless to say the Brothers from Boca-Delray challenged the take, and vowed to come and get it! -- The BYKOTA Gavel Team will spread the cement of Brotherly Love, and take it back!

Our Valentine's Day Breakfast served a record 108 visitors. Three different Fire Departments, two Police Departments, the Widows Sons and the Ashlars made the trip, plus our Sunday morning breakfast regulars showed up in force. Many thanks to the Zemola Family for their creative expertise in preparing the Lodge.

Remember, March 5th is Fellowship Day at the Renaissance Festival located at Quiet Waters Park. See SW Bill Comer for details.

Rumor has it... A Master Mason Proficiency will take place on 28th of March, under direction of W:. Wayne Thibeault. It is believed that a last minute line order switch may occur. This should be... Very interesting.

W:. Wayne Thibeault will present Masonic Education #5 on the proper use of Ball Ballot, directly after the Master Mason Proficiency.

Monday, April 11 at our Stated Communication, we will hold an EA Degree to confer Messrs Frum and Jacoby together with two Garden Lodge candidates.

Fraternally,

Allan Mason, W:.M.: 2016

Message from the West

Greetings Brethren,

This year seems to be flying by. Hard to believe it is March already. For those who attended the Dunkin Cigars, I can safely say a good time was had by all. We even had some Brothers from other lodges in the district join us for some fun and fellowship.

Lodge work is about to pick up significantly as we anticipate an Entered Apprentice degree in April. For those that may be interested, there will be weekly practices as we ensure the degree will be a memorable experience for all involved. If being on the degree team sounds appealing, let either myself or the Worshipful Master know and we will find a spot on the team for you. For newer Master Masons it is a great way to refresh your knowledge and to learn much more about the craft. Not to mention that practices tend to be a great time to relax with your Brothers. Hope to see you there.

Fraternally,

Bill Comer SW 2016
