Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

Almost time for the Grand Lodge communication (May 29-31). I am looking forward to the fellowship of the event and being with brothers from all over our state. If you wish to come to the communication, let me know. There are some significant legislative items on the agenda this year and I would encourage all of you to become educated on the issues. Representing Bykota this year as voters will be our Senior Warden Beau Cisco, Junior Warden Matthew Johnson, and myself. If you have any questions or concerns regarding any of the items on the agenda, please let us know.

I always hate to bring issues regarding finances up, but I must. We have a significant number of brothers who are in danger of going NPD along with a growing list of brother requesting emeritus status. While I appreciate that many brothers are having financial issues, I am requesting that those who are impacted please reach out to the secretary or myself to see how we can help resolve your situation.

If you missed it, we had our second Bykota Charity Card Night. We had 2 tables of action running and the overall competition is wide open. Come on out and help a worthy cause! I am looking forward to our next card night on Monday May 15th (and every 3rd Monday of the month) and hope to see you there.

Fraternally,

William Comer, W.:M.: 2017

Message from the South

My Brothers,

Have you paused to reflect lately? No, I'm not talking about looking into a mirror to see who stares back – I'm thinking along the lines of contemplating who we are, the events we've experienced, decisions we've made that transformed us into who we are, and why we chose to become Master Masons. Like each of you, there are decisions that I wish I could change in my life, but choosing to become a Master Mason has never been among them.

I have a special request for each of my Brothers who read this message: please take a moment to reflect on yourself. Stop to think about what it means to be an upright man, a person that others can count on, and why you chose to take the obligation of a Master Mason. Is there something that you can do to make a difference in the life of another? Faith, hope and charity are hallmarks of our fraternity – what can you do to have an impact on someone else?

Fraternally,

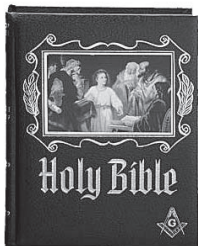

Matthew Johnson, Junior Warden 2017

Message from the West

Brothers,

I would like to thank everyone who made it to the poker night last week! I think it shows a lot that brothers came from other lodges to enjoy themselves and contribute to a worthy cause. In the end, that's the reason for what we do, creating a brotherhood.

If you are reading this and you're not a frequent visitor at lodge and are uncomfortable returning because it's been a while. We want you to know, it's your lodge and we want you to be here. It's understandable that people may forget some of the formalities of lodge business and that's ok. Please know that if you forgot the signs, we will show you. If you forgot the handshake, we will teach you. If you cannot stay for a while meeting, come by for dinner.

On behalf of your officers, we want you know that you're always welcome.

Fraternally,

Beau Cisco, Senior Warden 2017
