Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

We recently had a tremendous honor at the second stated meeting of May. Worshipful Al Wahl visited the lodge and celebrated his 67th year as a Mason with us. Think about that. 67 years as a Mason. Not to mention he was the master of his lodge 7 years before I was born!

During the evening, Al shared a little bit about his Masonic journey and it made me reflect on why we are members of the fraternity. "Taking good men and making them better" is often a phrase I hear regarding our purpose. And while I believe that is absolutely true, I also know it is much more. It is about building bonds with our local communities, contributing to the greater good and being an example to those around us. Whenever you are in or out of lodge, remember that you always represent us. Especially if you wear any jewelry or clothing identifying yourself as a brother. Keep in mind your obligation and make sure your deeds and actions reflect the standards we all cherish.

As an FYI, Bykota will be going dark for our second meetings in the months of June, July and August. We will still have our first stated meeting each month, breakfast on the second Sunday and charity card night on the 3rd Monday. Hope to see you all there.

Fraternally,

William Comer, W:.M.: 2017

Message from the South

My Brothers,

I was recently afforded the opportunity to meet a Brother who was raised over half a century ago. I was amazed at the sheer prospect of someone being a member of a fraternity as fine as ours for such a long time. What are some of his most memorable experiences as a Mason? How many other Brothers has he met over the years? What types of advice could he offer a younger Brother?

Whether you consider yourself to be young, old or somewhere in between, I would encourage you to come out to the Lodge... Maybe you could be a mentor to a younger Brother... Or perhaps you could learn something new from an older Brother. Regardless of your age, experiences or circumstances, visiting the Lodge is a wonderful way to enjoy an evening. Come to enjoy the food, stay to enjoy the fellowship, and keep coming back to grow.

Fraternally,

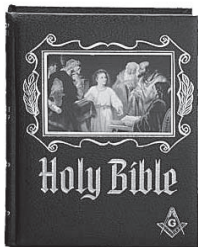

Matthew Johnson, Junior Warden 2017

Message from the West

Brothers,

I'd like to take this time and say once again thank you for your confidence and support as Senior Warden of this Lodge. This year is almost half over and we need to start looking to planning the next year. I'd like to hear ideas and suggestion that any of you may have regarding the future of this Lodge. It's my philosophy that no matter who sits in the chairs, this your Lodge and your input is important to that process.

As always, keep the fellowship we all sought when we walked in the front door for the first time alive. Please take the time to reach out to a brother.

Fraternally,

Beau Cisco, Senior Warden 2017
