Message from the East

Greetings Brethren,

November is upon us and I cannot believe how fast this year has flown by. It has been a fun ride so far, but we aren't done yet.

Our first stated meeting in November will feature our Ladies Night dinner. All of the ladies of our members both past and present are invited to join us for a turkey dinner at 6:30PM. We look forward to reconnecting with those who have truly supported us throughout the years. Without the strong ladies in our lives, our journeys would be much more difficult. This is our way of acknowledging all that you have done for us.

At our second stated meeting in November, we are planning to host a Fellowcraft degree for brother David Collado. Please come out and support him as he takes the next step in his Masonic journey.

Best wishes to all and may you enjoy a wonderful upcoming Thanksgiving holiday.

Fraternally,

William Comer, W.:M.: 2017

Message from the South

Brothers,

I wanted to take a moment to thank everyone who has worked so hard to make Bykota one of the most welcoming Lodges in the District! I feel truly blessed to be able to be a part of OUR Lodge - and I hope you feel the same way.

In the past month, Bykota has welcomed visiting Brethren from Europe, and we also saw service awards bestowed to half a dozen Brothers ranging from 25 - 70 years of service to the Fraternity. Think about that - visitors coming from thousands of miles away, and Brothers with decades of memories and experiences which can be shared - those are just some of the opportunities to grow that you're missing out on if you aren't coming to Lodge.

If you're feeling a little "rusty" - don't worry - there are Brothers at Lodge who will welcome you back with open arms. As is the case with so many things in life, seek, and ye shall find - perhaps you are seeking fellowship, reassurance, or a general sense of "home". Find your way back to Bykota, and I guarantee that you can find each of those things - and more.

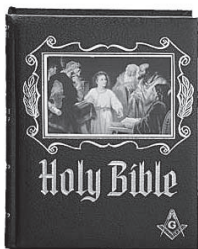

Fraternally,
Matthew Johnson, Junior Warden 2017

Message from the West

My Brothers,

I hope everyone had a happy and safe Halloween! In a few short weeks will be Thanksgiving, I hope you will all be making it to Thanksgiving dinner at the lodge. Elections will be coming up in December, please remember to stop by and cast your vote. The future of the lodge is nothing to be taken lightly and will be a good time amongst brothers.

The holiday season is a tough time for many people and as a brotherhood it is part of our responsibility check up on those brothers who may be alone during the holidays. Please reach out to your lodge officers if there's anything we can do to help brothers in need this holiday season.

Fraternally,

Beau Cisco, Senior Warden 2017
