Message from the East

Greetings from the East,

I want to share an experience that I've had twice in the past month. I travel a lot for business and on my last two business trips I was lucky enough to come across fellow brothers on the road. We met, and shortly after, recognized our connection as Masons. The hospitality and friendship these two men showed me was a true example of what we all joined Masons for. It showed me that even traveling alone in strange cities, you are never truly alone.

As we start hurricane season, please make contact with brothers who may have problems preparing for a storm to lend a hand. If anyone needs help this year, please call or email any one of the officers and we will do what we can to make sure you have that help.

We are in the final stretch of 2018 and we have some great events to finish off the year. On September 24 we will be hosting the first responders appreciation night at the lodge. I ask that you please join us and help celebrate those who keep us safe.

Fraternally,
Beau Cisco, Worshipful Master 2018

Message from the West

Brothers,

I come from a family with a proud history of service - both military and law enforcement. As such, one of the early lessons that my wife and I taught our daughter was that Soldiers, Police Officers, Firefighters, and Paramedics are the "good guys". We taught her that strong people like these can be trusted, and that they make a difference in many ways.

Around this time every year, I find myself reflecting even more than usual on the sheer bravery that our first responders demonstrate every single time they report for duty. These selfless men and women leave the comfort and safety of their homes in order to maintain law and order in ways that often go unrecognized.

To that effect, I would like to offer a very sincere "thank you" to everyone who reads this message who has served the citizens of their community as a first responder - past or present. When my family is in public, I am proud when my daughter approaches an officer and conveys the following message: "thank you for keeping everyone safe" - you can tell it means a lot to the officer when they receive such a simple, yet powerful message.

Keeping with this general sentiment, I respectfully encourage the Brethren to take a moment to acknowledge a first responder in some manner in the coming days - a simple handshake and a "thank you" can go a long way in letting these fine men and women know that they are appreciated for the impact that they have on our lives.

Fraternally,

Matthew Johnson, Senior Warden 2018
