Message from the East

A final greeting from the East,

As my year in the East comes to an end, I want to thank each and everyone of you for a great learning experience. This position has not only expanded my view of how our lodge functions, but forced me to become a more learned Mason. Thank you all for allowing me to serve you in 2018.

A few months back, someone asked me what kind of legacy I wanted to leave behind. I have to be honest when I say I was not sure how to answer this question, but after considerable thought, I realized the answer was obvious to me. I designed my year to bring brothers and families together to enjoy the fellowship we all joined for. I feel that is what a Masonic Lodge should do; serve as a place to bring people together. I hope that during my time in office, the lodge felt like a home for brothers and family alike. I look forward to passing the torch and see the lodge grow in the years to come.

Speaking of that, on December 15 we will be raising seven brothers and I hope you join me in welcoming them into our fraternity.

Fraternally,

Beau Cisco, Worshipful Master 2018

Message from the South

Greetings Brothers,

Elections for 2019 Lodge Officers will be the first meeting in December. Please remember that voting on lodge matters is a huge part of being a member of the lodge and your vote is very important. The future of the lodge is nothing to be taken lightly.

The holiday season is a tough time for many people and as a brotherhood it is part of our responsibility check up on those brothers who may be alone during the holidays.

Please reach out to your lodge officers if there's anything you can do to help brothers in need this holiday season from rides to meetings to delivering food or other necessities.

Our Charity Card Night wound up in a tie for first place between W.: Mason and Joe Harvey.

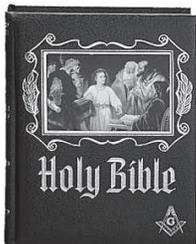

Fraternally

Joe Harvey, Junior Warden 2018

Message from the West

Brothers,

As the year comes to a close, I like to look back to reflect. What went well? What could have gone better? How did I respond to successes and to failures? What can I do to grow as a husband, as a father, and as a Mason? If you're like me, you realize that life is full of challenges - how we respond to those challenges helps to define who we are.

During the holiday season in particular, I realize how blessed I am - and I am thankful for those many blessings. With that said though, we all know someone who has suffered a loss, some sort of misfortune, or a general problem which can weigh heavily on them.

To this effect, I urge you to spend a few minutes away from your television, your smart phone, your laptop, etc. - take some time to remember someone who had an impact on your life - someone who helped you to evolve. Try to do something to honor those who touched your life, and leave a mark of your own at the same time. What better way is there to remember someone than to show how they helped you to become the upright man and Mason you are today?

Wishing you the very best.

Fraternally,

Matthew Johnson, Senior Warden 2018
