Message from the East

My Brothers,

I hope everyone had a Happy Thanksgiving and is ready for the Holidays.

Because we are going to keep everyone in the same chairs next year I am once again proud to congratulate Bro. Walter Arnette and Bro. Ken Camer on being Senior and Junior Warden once again.

Hopefully in 2021 we can return to normalcy and start breaking bread and raising Masons! If anyone needs anything this Holiday season make sure to reach out to myself or one of the Wardens and we will be happy to assist from a ride somewhere to maybe just a phone call to talk. My line is always open.

Faternally,

WM Joe Harvey WM Elect for 2021

Message from the West

BYKOTA MINUTES 1960

An event took place a year and a half ago, which will be climaxed next Friday night, June 3, 1960 at 8:00 P.M., when the Bykota Organization Bykota Lodge No. 333, F.& A.M. The constitutional ceremony will take place in the Masonic Temple of Lake Worth.

On October 27, 1958, a group of Masons met in the Trail Park Fire station, with the desire to form a new Masonic Lodge for the Western Lake Worth area. The organization was sponsored by Gulf Stream Lodge No. 245, and under direction of J. Richard Smith Past Master of Gulf Stream Lodge.

The organization met with success from the start and attracted much attention in Masonic circles. Six months later, which is unusual, the organization was granted a Dispensation to Function as a Masonic Lodge, and became Bykota Lodge U. D., with J. Richard Smith the U. D. Master.

Message from the South

To my brothers of Bykota.

I hope everyone is having a safe and happy Holiday season thus far. We are all excited to get back to Masonic normalcy and welcome in new applicants. I am honored to be in a position to help new members along their path in Masonry.

Thanks to everyone who is pitching in and let's keep up the momentum to finish the year on a positive note.

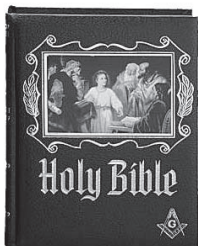

Yours in service,

Ken Camer JW 2020
